It seems that certain funds were collected for the construction of a car and lodged in the Savings Bank. Are there any papers about it in this or Mus.
Depot's files. The money appears to have been drawn and a car constructed by a Dharmadani.
What became of this car.

The D. C. Bangalore was asked to submit an estimate for a new car for the Sri Venkataramanaswami temple at Fort, Bangalore City, and also to report what funds were available at the credit of the temple to meet the cost of the new car -

Again in this office letter no. 89327.11.1, the attention of the Dy. Commr. was drawn to the above G.M. and requested to submit the estimate early and also to inform whether the sum of Rs 493-7-9 deposited in the Govt Savings Bank in the name of Mr. A. G. Singaravelu Mudaliar, Dharma-daro, has since been transferred to the name of the temple and how the amount has been disposed of, if otherwise -

There is no information as to whether any subscriptions were collected for the construction of a new car. The subscriptions that were collected were for
